

In the Foundational Stage, the focus is on building familiarity of students with two spoken Languages (R1 and R2). At the end of this stage, students are expected to read fluently in R1 and comprehend what they read, and begin writing sentences in R1 to express experiences, themes, and what they see in pictures. They gain some familiarity with reading and writing in R2.

In the Preparatory Stage, students develop proficiency in speaking, and competencies in reading and writing in both Languages (R1 and R2). While students achieve these faster in R1, they are expected to gain familiarity with R2, gradually progressing from basic communication skills to greater fluency and proficiency in speaking and writing.

By the end of the Middle Stage, teachers should aim to achieve similar levels of students' proficiency in both R1 and R2. Some transfer of skills from R1 to R2 enables quicker learning of R2. By the end of this stage, students can understand and appreciate the distinctive features of the language, engage in collaborative discussions, debates, and presentations, analyse and interpret what they read, and write independently with appropriate structure, grammar, vocabulary and creativity.

A new third Language, R3, is introduced in this stage. Students acquire familiarity with the spoken form of this language, along with the basics of reading and writing. They are expected to read various simple texts with comprehension in R3 by the end of the Middle Stage.

	5.2 Demonstrates interest in reading books from the Library

Principles of Content Selection

It is important to choose content that is appropriate and relevant to the developmental stages of language learning in students. Inadequate, age inappropriate, and low-quality materials are taking away the value of and joy in language classrooms. Teachers must ensure the use of good quality TLMs, carefully chosen and curated for students across all age groups. This will ensure enthusiasm for learning and foster a connection with the languages being learnt.
